

Beekeeper

Are you a beekeeper? Do you want to create your own flexible schedule to take care of beehives for a great non-profit? Would you like to make some extra money and honey this year?

We are looking for a beekeeper to maintain our 20 beehives and teach a series of 8 classes on Intro to Beekeeping using top bar hives. This class meets one Saturday a month, for 8 months (4 hours each class). Class curriculum is already developed.

Required Qualifications

- Must have 3 years experience beekeeping with top bar hives
- Must have teaching experience (classroom or other setting)
- Extensive knowledge and experience with top bar beehives, as well as strong communication and teaching skills.

Employment Details

- Interviews begin January 9th, 2012
- Preferred start March 1, 2012
- This is a part-time permanent position. Approx 6 hours a month teaching and 5-7 hours a week maintaining the beehives. March thru mid October
- Position pays a salary of $2,000 and the honey produced in the beehives is yours to sell or keep (approximately $2,000 worth of honey).
- Please send your resume, cover letter, and one letter of recommendation to vanessa@growinggardens.org
- This position offers many great rewards and is a great opportunity to put your heart into your work place
